

Quiz 10 Solutions

Sam Mansfield

1. There are two options when sending. The first option is to use the receiver's public key to encrypt the message and then the receiver can use their private key to decrypt the message. The other option is to use the sender's private key to encrypt the message and then use the sender's public key to decrypt the message.

2. Check out the following link for my answer: Password Strength.